pointing the intelligence support to the particular requirements of the EDIC or the interagency committees in the field of export control [REDACTED]

This limited T/O is based on the assumption that the Economic Defense Division will be authorized to draw upon other components of ORR and CIA for support as needed. [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] this support must necessarily have an overriding priority. In order to minimize the interference with longer term and routine functions of other divisions of ORR, it is suggested that certain analysts in the branches concerned be designated as the contact with the Economic Defense Division.
